This is not working. Too many people are milling in and out. And in this light it's impossible to tell who's got what lanyard colors 17:06:30

check people when they go in the door, how hard can that be? 17:07:42

Look, I am not going to tell my guys to stop hulking heavyweight fighters and their equally enormous and angry team members to check the color of their badge. Everyone down here is in a hurry or a bad mood or both 17:09:01 fair enough just make sure everyone going in has a badge at least we can come up with a better approach for next time 17:11:18

Will do, thx 17:11:52
